Holy Name High School now has something to show for two straight all-victorious football seasons. Wally Langdon (center, above) holds the Clairmont

Trophy and shakes the hand of Dick Chizek, nifty halfback who captained the 1948 Blue and Gold team. The Rev. Stanley Burke, CSSR, athletic director, looks on. Mr. Langdon donated the trophy for the 1947 and 1948 teams which won 15 consecutive games, seven in '47 and eight in '48.—World-Herald Photo.
